

Thanks for your interest in the Port Polson Players Summer Kids Camp 2011

This year's session runs Monday, June 13, through Saturday, June 18 and culminates in an evening of song and stories. "Truth is Marching On," will be presented to the public. Saturday June 18th.

The $100.00 tuition (two children in the same family = $150.00) includes a T-shirt and supplies for theatre-related crafts and workshops, and props and costumes for the show.

Children must be registered by Friday, June 10th, with tuition due no later than first day of camp. Each child must bring a healthful sack lunch and snack with them each day – deliveries are strongly discouraged, and no camper will be excused to go get something to eat.

Camp is open to students grades K- 8. However, kindergarteners must be emotionally ready for the opportunity. If, after Day 1 of camp, they seem too young for the week, $75.00 will be refunded. (Most kids are ready, but some young ones lose interest and can't keep up. It depends on the child.)

Camp runs from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, Monday thru Friday. On Saturday, we keep the kids all day, from 11:00 am through 9:00 pm. They perform two shows that day, one at 3 pm and one at 7 pm.

A college theatre major assists with the camp and also performs in the show.

Between shows on Saturday is our cast party, the Port Polson Players Performers' Party (or "P-Party" for short). At that time, everyone receives an award (including things they worked on all week long, i.e.: best hat (from "Hat Day,"), best poem, play, etc. The Outstanding Camper award is voted on by the kids and counselors and is presented on stage after the evening show, usually by the previous years winner.

Tickets for the public performances are $6.00 for Adults and $5.00 for Students and Senior Citizens.

It's a fun-filled week for the kids. Everyone has a great time while learning and fine-tuning presentational skills to last a lifetime.
